

This chart contains the ukulele chords we'll use to explore the Blues. The most common Blues chords are referred by the numbers "one, four, and five" and are labeled with Roman Numerals. Treat each row as it's own group playing the white columns first I-IV-V and then V-IV-I. The chords in the grey columns show dominant seventh chords that are often substituted in Blues music.

